FOR ONCE UPON A TIME

Like a dream that comes alive
I look back to all those years
We had so much for so long
Through the laughter and the tears
You gave me all I needed
I gave you all I had
But then it all was over
We smiled feeling sad

Refrain;
For once upon a time
Is a place I'd rather be
The days were so much longer
And he nights saw you and me
But the years replace the hours
And what was yours and mine
So I'll just keep on loving you
And dream of once upon a time

Lost and all alone
Nothing else that I could do
I thought my life was over
Living it without you
But time has come between us
And the years have seen us grow
The memories preserving emotions long ago

(Refrain)

What becomes tomorrow's memories
Were yesterdays sweet dreams
What we though would last forever
Was never meant to be

(Refrain)

Our prom was held on May 14, 1983 in our school gym. We enjoyed dining, at the Georgian on beautiful Lake George. We were entertained by Jen MacKnight, as she played our prom song which she had written. It was a day and evening that none of us will ever forget!

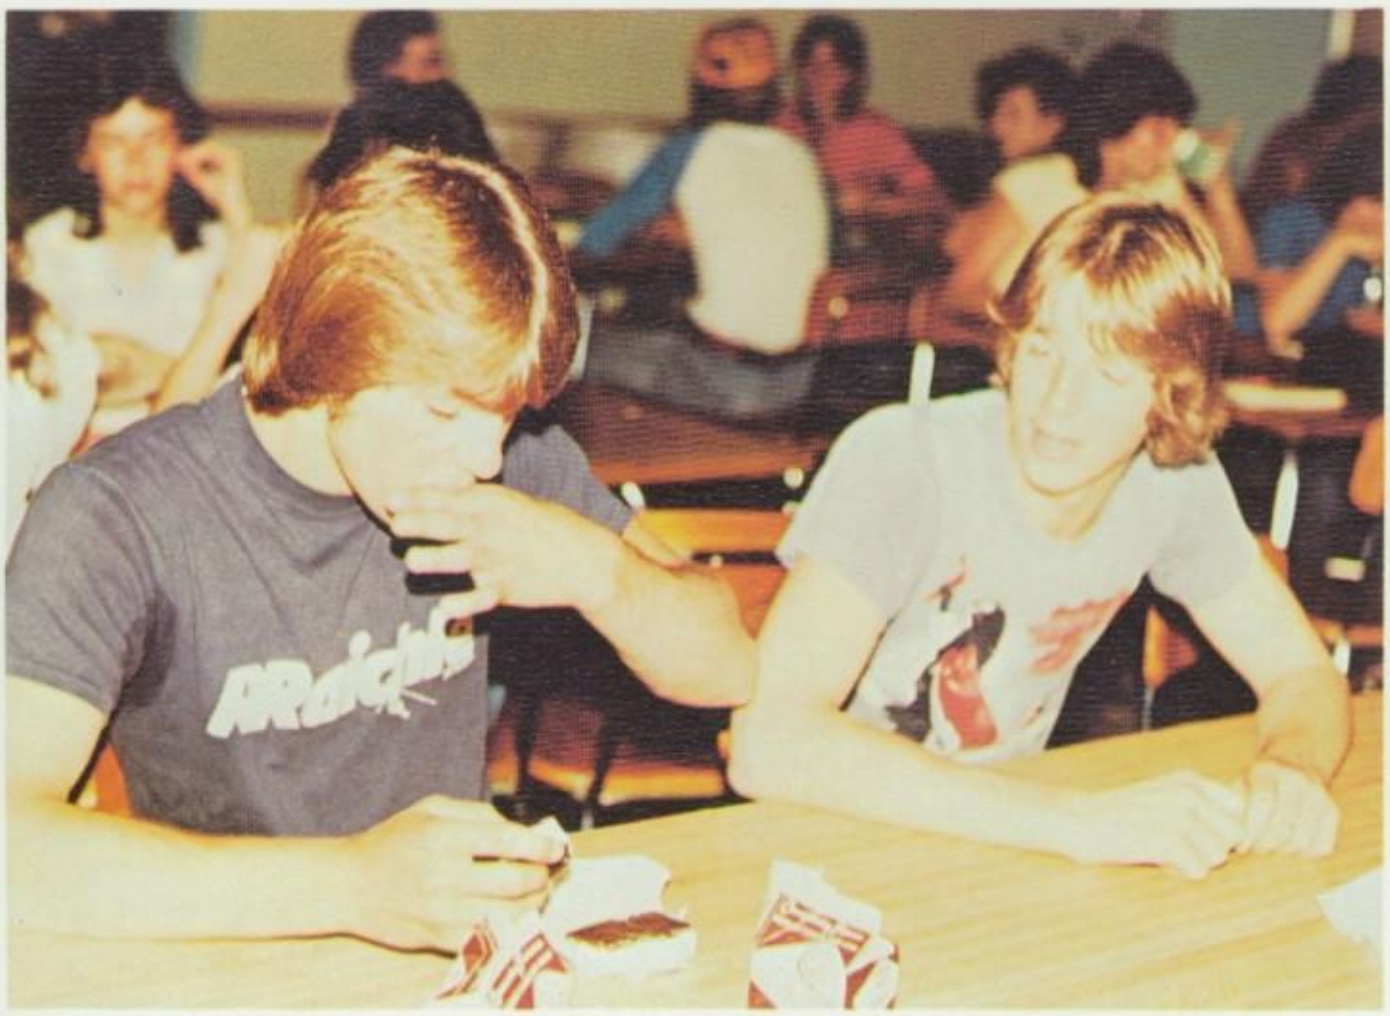
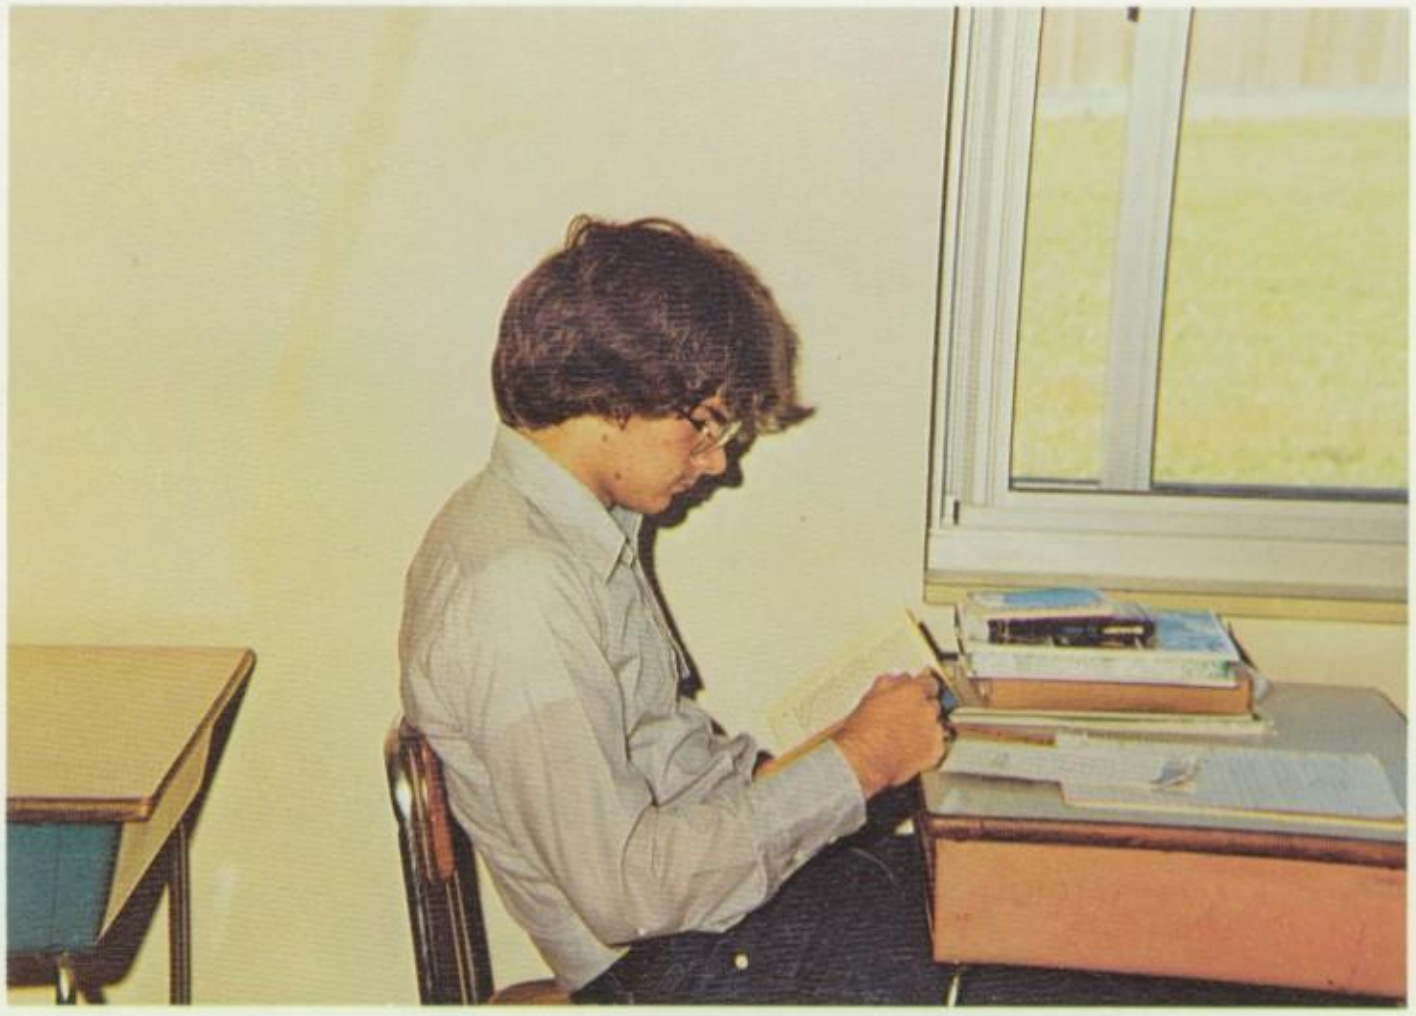
The Long And Winding Road

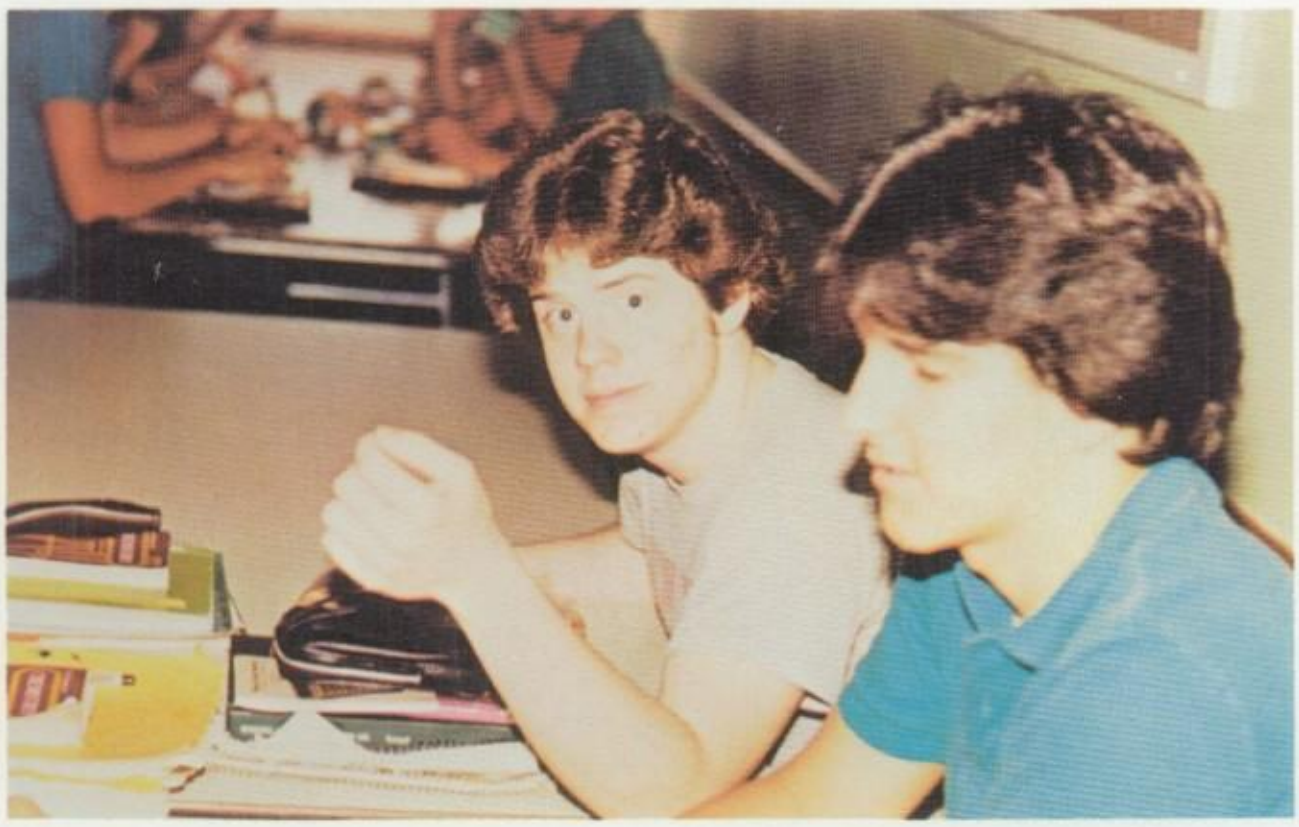
The long and winding road that leads to your door will never disappear, I've seen that road before.

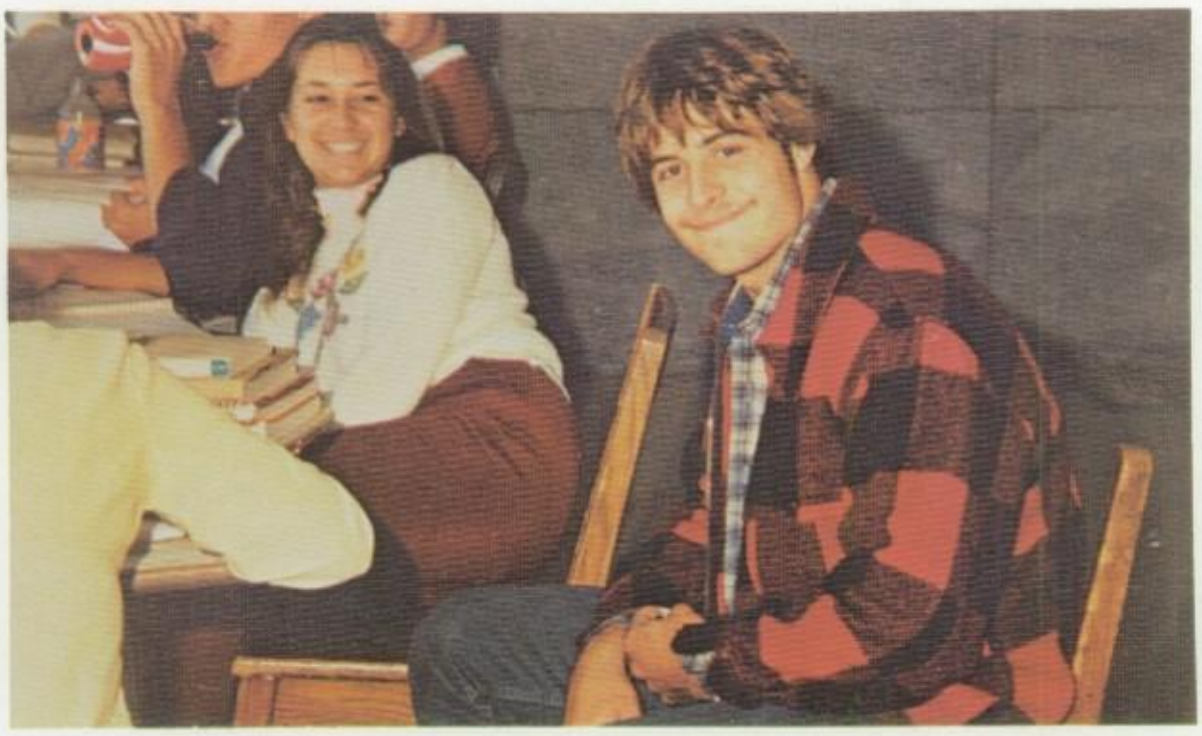


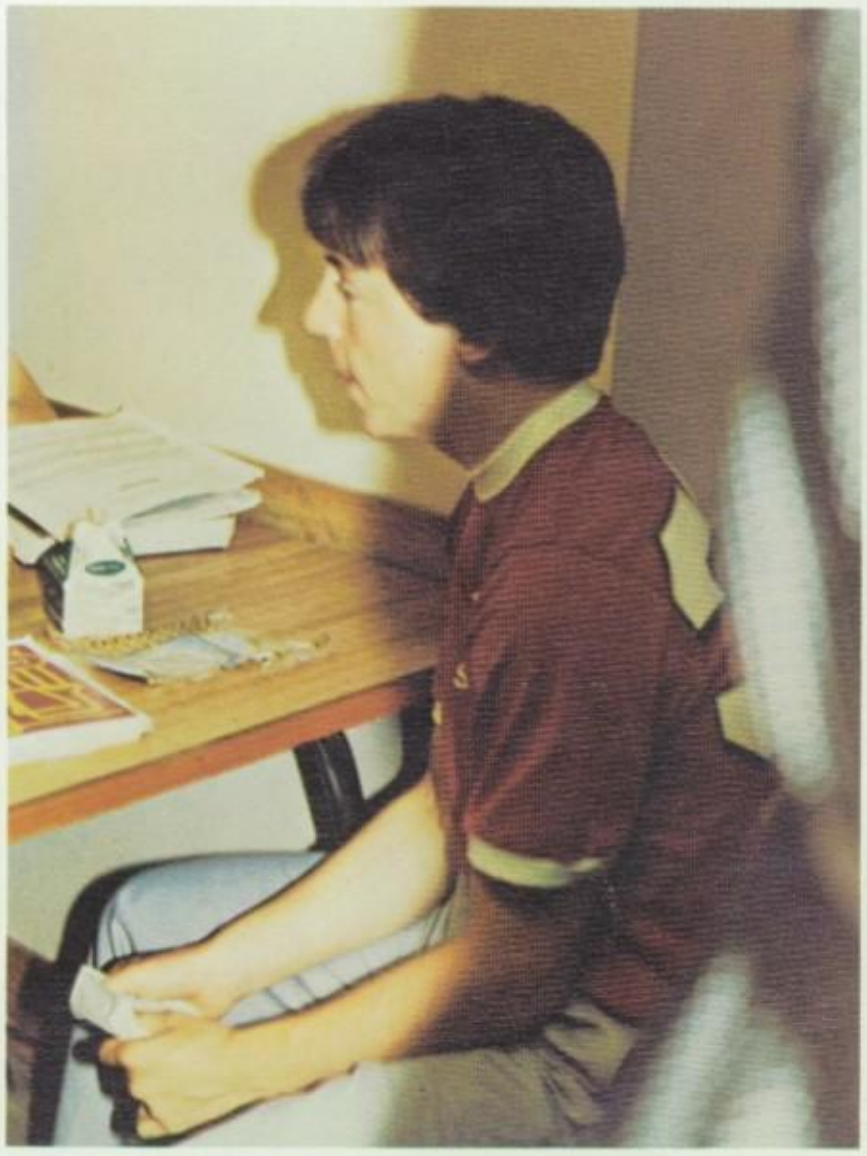
It always leads me here, lead me to your door.

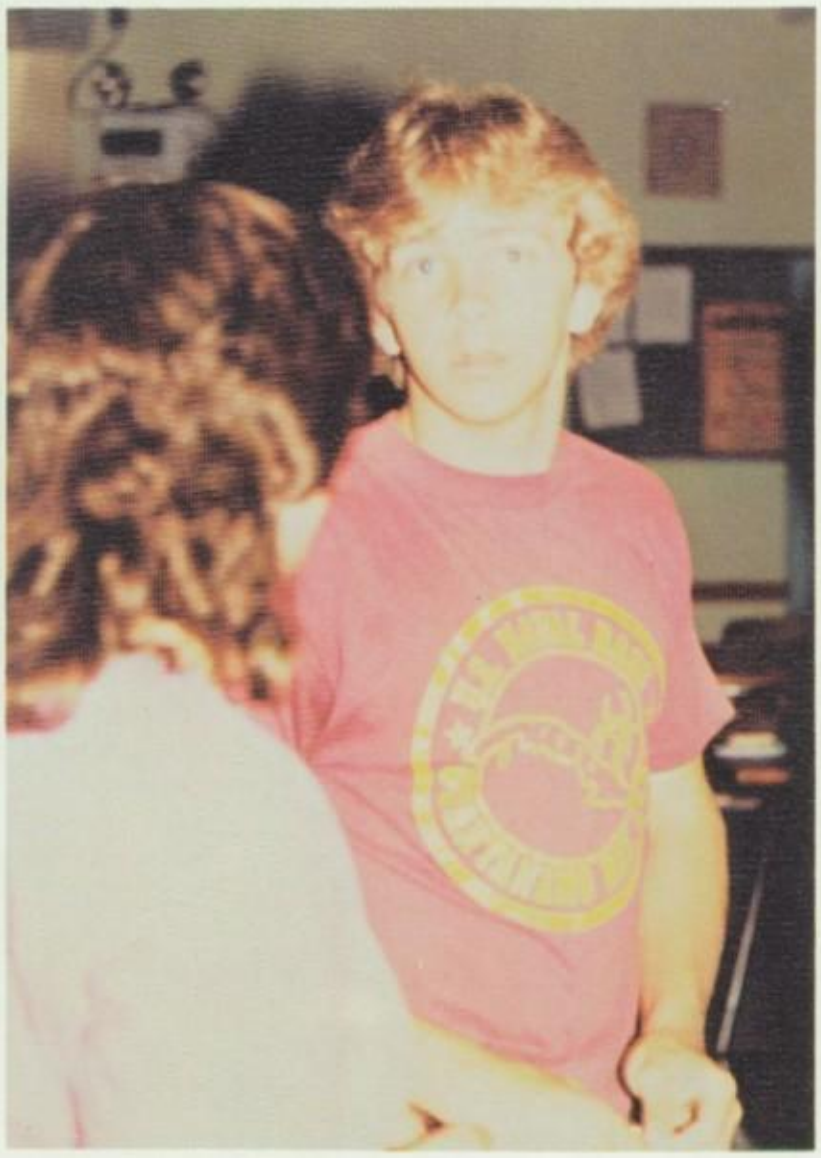


The wild and windy night that the rain washed away has left a pool of tears crying for the day, why leave me standing here, let me know the way.



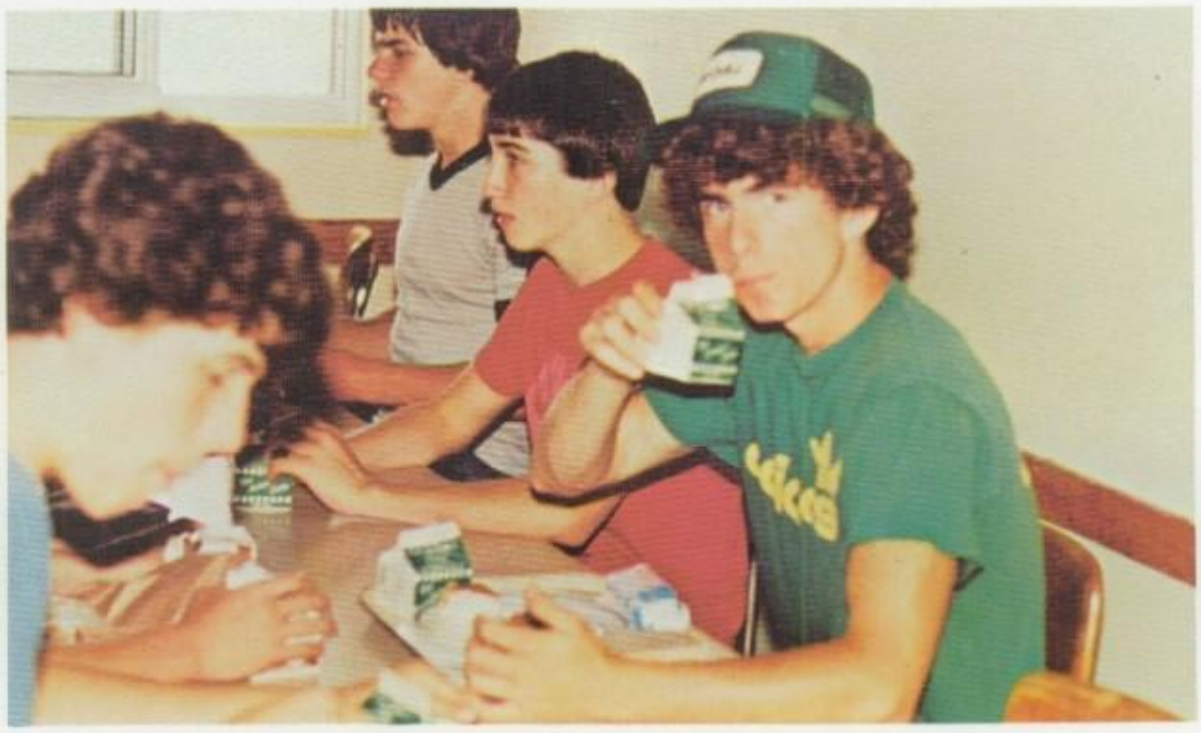






Many times I've been alone and many times I've cried, any way you'll never know the many ways I've tried.

But still they lead me back to that long and winding road, you left me standing here, a long long time ago,



Don't leave me waiting here, lead me to your door

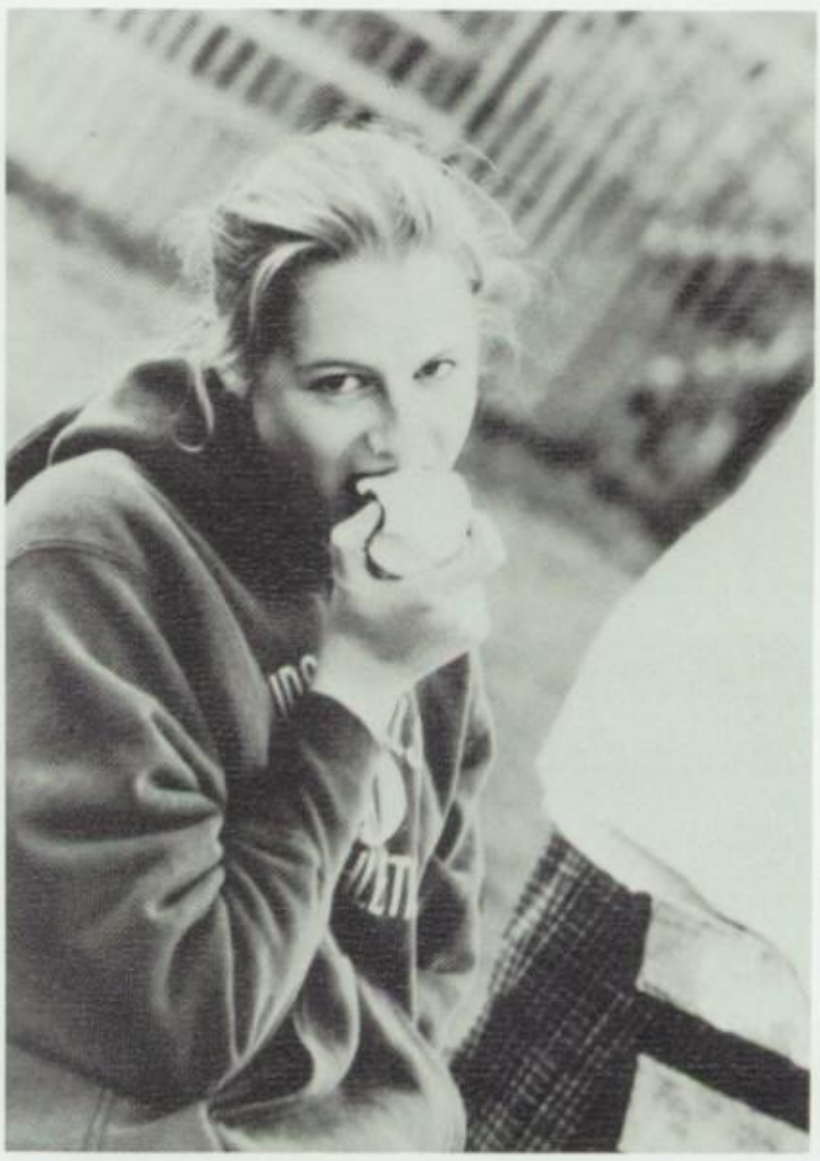
Mike Layden got his license
Dan Gallagher wasn't grounded
Mark McCleod didn't like girls
Michelle Measeck didn't smile
Shanna Driscoll understood
Erin Hogan wore socks
Mark Resetar had wrinkled socks
Matt French opened his eyes
Beth Carota's hair was the same color two weeks in a row
Peggy Collins went mute
Dan Gallagher was at a loss for words
Lisa Carte failed a test
Steve Jackoski didn't move his head when he sang
Anne Mullen didn't play a hooker in a show
Steve Lowe could drive
Marge Brock laughed out loud
Mace didn't show up
These were funny
Jen MacKnight wasn't singing
Joe Potvin went away to school
Mr. Holmes' hair was dry
Lynne Barber didn't draw a crowd of guys

And now I shall drink a bottle of water through my nose.

Attack of Sammy; coming soon to a theatre near you.

Right Idea, Kyle.



Help. Someone put super-glue on my apple.

If you can keep your head when all around you are losing theirs, you are a stud.

Alright Shanna, you can go. But hurry.

She's laughing at me because my finger is stuck to my tongue.

The Joycemobile

1971-1983

As the first car to achieve Mach 1 speed on the Notre Dame Speedway, The Joycemobile provided many thrills for friends, relatives, and innocent bystanders alike. In its later years, it became one of the first cars to offer a panoramic view of the road below, from the drivers seat. Though suffering from the brunt of many jokes, the car performed admirably and will be missed by all.

Survivors include: Al's Service Center, Charlie and Craig Fountaine's "get down here quick!" Oldsmobile repair, The Presbyterian Auto Faith Healers, and the NAPA Auto Parts Chain.

Notice. Mourners can stay tuned next summer as Leonard Nimoy goes "In Search of The Joycemobile".

MY CREED

To live as gently as I can;
To be, no matter where, a man;
To take what comes of good or ill
And cling to faith and honor still;
To do my best, and let that stand
The record of my brain and hand;
And then, should failure come to me,
Still work and hope for victory.

To have no secret place wherein
I stoop unseen to shame or sin;
To be the same when I'm alone
As when my every deed is known;
To live undaunted, unafraid
Of any step that I have made;
To be without pretense or sham
Exactly what men think I am.

To leave some simple mark behind
To keep my having lived in mind;
If enmity to aught I show,
To be an honest, generous foe,
To play my little part, nor whine
That greater honors are not mine,
This, I believe, is all I need
For my philosophy and creed.
